Week beginning Monday 4th May 2020

All the links can be followed or find the resources on our website (Curriculum/Home Learning Tab)

Reading	Phonics	Spelling
Keep reading for at least 10 minutes every day. Read books, magazines, recipes etc. If you would like to access virtual books here are some good options... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Oxford Owls have free reading 'e-books'. • Amazon Fire for kids – they have uploaded lots of Oxford reading tree books they can read on their tablet. Don't forget the importance of being read to everyday – David Walliams is a popular choice online at the moment. Apps: Have you tried 'teach your monster to read' it is a wonderful app where you can practise phonics and learn to read words whilst having fun adventures with your little alien friend – why not give it a go.	Mrs Wellum's group: Keep practising your Phase 5 sounds using your Phase 5 word mat (on the school website) This week can you focus on the alternative pronunciation of 'ie' e.g. pie and field. Can you also practise the alternative pronunciation of 'ea' e.g. bead, head. Mrs Lenton's group: Mrs Lenton has requested her group practise the sounds 'ear', 'igh' and 'ure'. What words can you make with these sounds? Make a list. Mrs Askwith's group: Practise your Phase 3 sounds (phase 3 mat on the school website). This week can you focus on 'sh', 'ch', 'th' and 'ng'. What words can you make with these sounds?	Practise them and ask a grown up to test you on Friday Mrs Lenton's phonics group spellings: when have there out like little what	Mrs Wellum's phonics group spellings: better letter slipper have give live when where why what
Writing (including Punctuation & Grammar) Time Capsule Why don't you have a go at making a time capsule (see our weekly email about what a time capsule is) We have attached a time capsule starter kit in the resources section but we as creative as you like. Could you write yourself a letter (with some help from your grown up's) to put in the time capsule?	Maths Time focus: Can you practice writing the days of the week? Then see if you can answer these questions... Today is Wednesday, yesterday was _____. Yesterday was Monday, today is _____. Today is Saturday, tomorrow is _____. Tomorrow is _____, today is Wednesday.	Mrs Askwith's group were not on spellings just yet but if anyone fancies a challenge – have a go at these: and, no, go, the, and, to, I.
	Topic (Where we live - UK) History As this week commemorates VE day can you do some research on the internet and find out more about it? Could you talk to some family members over the phone and find out what they know about it?

Once upon a picture

Instead of using an image from the website, we thought we would use one to represent VE day this week. Explore this picture and answer the questions...

- How do you think the people feel in this picture?
- Why are they waving flags? What country does the flag represent?
- Why is the picture black and white and not in colour?
 - How can you tell this is an old photograph?

SPAG

Extra challenge for Y1's – Have a go at the SPaG Mat (Summer Term 1, Mat 4)

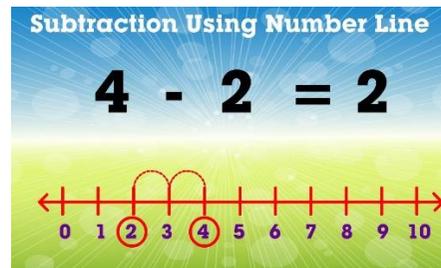

<https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/t-l-52932-year-1-summer-term-1-spag-activity-mats>

We have also attached a time worksheet for you to complete on the resources section of the website.

Subtraction:

Can you practice your subtraction skills?

This is great to do with objects or even food as when you take it away – you can eat it! We especially love doing smartie maths in Class One.

There is a subtraction to 20 sheet in the resources section for you to complete.

Education City Games:

We have linked some great maths themed games to your account to practice addition and subtraction. We have seen some of you completing these so well done.

Geography

Can you look at a map of the United Kingdom and find and label England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland?

Art

Can you make a Union Jack flag to wave on Friday?

DT (Food technology)

Can you have a go at this wartime baking recipe..

Potato Scones

6 oz flour

4 oz mashed potato

1 teaspoonful baking powder

½ teaspoonful salt

1 oz fat

4-5 tablespoons milk

Mix the flour and salt. Add the baking powder and work into the mashed potato. Rub in the fat. Blend to a soft dough with milk. Roll out to ¼ inch thickness. Cut into rounds. Brush the tops with milk. Bake on greased baking sheets for 15 minutes in a hot oven. For a sweet scone add 1 oz sugar.
