Weekly Newsletter: 17th September 2018

Violins: Mr. Smith now has space for new children to start private violin lessons. They will take place during school time on Tuesdays, costing £6.50 per lesson (on a 1:2 basis). They are open to all pupils from Y1 – Y6 and application forms are in the office. Please let us know if you'd like one or have any questions.

Reading Volunteers: We are currently looking to recruit some new reading volunteers. If any parents / grandparents could spare an hour or so per week to listen to children read, please come and speak to Mr. Gaughan.

Welcome Meetings: Last week's welcome meetings were very well attended. Thank you for coming and thanks again if you completed a feedback form. We were very pleased with the responses (average rating = 9.3/10).

Parking: When dropping children off or collecting them from school, please park sensibly and safely. You should NOT double park, block people's drives or park on the zig-zags. Thank you for your co-operation in this matter.

Mr. Gaughan

Celebrating Achievement

Well done to the following children:

- ★ Franklin, Alfie, Billy, Alfie & Anna were awarded certificates in assembly for achieving the school standard of 'making sensible choices'.
- ★ Thomas for winning Class 2's handwriting competition.
- ★ Nursery stars of the week were Kwontay & Charlie.

This week's 'School Standard' is: Having respect for others

What's Happening?

Nursery: Nursery children have now started their 'Mini-kicks' football sessions.

Class 1: Class 1 had their first 'Forest Schools' session on Thursday and had lots of fun.

Class 2: Class 2 have been having a big push on neat handwriting (and forming letters correctly) this week - start as we mean to go on!

Class 3: Class 3 have started their 'Light & Dark' topic. Mrs. Gibson was very impressed by their existing knowledge!

Class 4: This week, ALL the Y4s (from both classes) will be starting their FREE violin lessons!

Class 5: Class 5 have started learning all about electricity in science. They have also started football sessions with SUFC.

Meanwhile, children in Y4 - Y6 have been busy applying for jobs in our 'Job Shop'. Interviews will take place next week!

Attendance

Class 1 & Class 2 got 100% for the second week in a row!
